PREMIER MEMBERS CREDIT UNION GIVES $12,500 TO COLORADO FOOD BANKS

Premier Members Credit Union provides funds to five Colorado food banks to support COVID-19 relief

Boulder, Colo. (April 27, 2020) Premier Members Credit Union gave $12,500 to benefit Colorado food banks amid statewide Covid-19 relief efforts. These recipient food banks include: Care and Share, Community Food Share, Food Bank of the Rockies, Food Bank for Larimer County and Weld Food Bank.

“At Premier Members, we believe it’s our responsibility to support the basic needs of our members and our community during this unprecedented time,” said Jason Bauer, Chief Marketing Officer at Premier Members Credit Union. “By providing funds to local Colorado food banks, we are helping to ensure that food resources continue to be accessible across the state and are providing for the community where they need us most.”

Since 2012, Premier Members has given more than $332,600 in corporate and employee giving and more than 1,000 hours of employee volunteer time annually to support areas of education, financial literacy and community basics.
